Posted on September 22, 2021 by Edmond

The screenshot shows a newspaper clipping from 'THE NORTH EAST TIMES' dated Wednesday, September 22, 2021, page 3. The headline reads 'Urban Health - Emerging Health Perspective: A praiseworthy resource for a potential urban health crisis'. The article discusses a new book edited by Dr. Edmond Fernandes and Dr. Indu Grewal, which explores various health issues in emerging urban settings. It highlights the book's focus on social, commercial, environmental, and legal determinants of health. The author, Mahesh Chowdhury, notes that India is undergoing rapid urbanization and globalization, leading to new challenges like infectious diseases and living space issues. The book is described as a compilation of 20 chapters by different authors covering topics such as road safety, water & sanitation, and drug abuse. The review concludes that the book is a valuable resource for students, public health professionals, and policy makers.

Urban Health - Emerging Health Perspective:
A praiseworthy resource for a potential urban health crisis

By MAHESH CHOWDHURY Considering that India is going through rapid urbanization, industrialization and globalization, there are new challenges that demand new algorithms and thoughts aligned with urban health issues, living space, crowding and diseases and rapid transmission of infectious diseases, the editors do a praiseworthy job of bringing these diverse themes within the umbrella of Urban Health.

The editors have brought global researchers from various backgrounds and hence offer varying and unique perspectives to urban health as a concept, hence, saving the book from becoming an advocate for a certain school of thought or otherwise. The book is an important read for Students, Public Health & Public Policy Professionals, policy makers, Government & UN Officials, civil society organisations and other stakeholders. What remains missing from the book is some focus on smart cities and urban architecture. It also fails to include the end game diseases like malaria, dengue, Tuberculosis. Inclusion of those could have built greater value to the same.

Teacher shortage pushes local leader to issue recruitment advt

ITANAGAR, SEPT 21: The lack of subject teachers in the government schools of Arunachal Pradesh, especially in the East Kameng district has compelled a local parishad to issue a recruitment ward and carry out a teacher's recruitment drive of its own.

Molk Bagang, a zilla parishad member (ZPM) from the Chayang Tajo Zilla Segment in East Kameng district has recently put out an advertisement to hire post graduate teachers (PGTs) for the Government Higher Secondary School in Chayang Tajo.

The advertisement seeks to appoint two PGTs, one each for Geography and History on contractual basis for a period of 6 months and for which Bagang has offered to pay a salary of Rs 33,000/- each per month, to the educators from their respective expenses.

According to the advertisement, the teachers would additionally get 20 kgs of rice and 2 kg dal (lentils) every month during their stay in Chayang Tajo.

According to Bagang, the Government Higher Secondary School, Chayang Tajo which needs around 23-26 teachers has only 16 tutors at present.

Those interested in the vacancy can send their resumes to molkbagang@gmail.com on or before September 24 and the preferred candidate would be called for an interview at Bagang's residence on September 25.

The All East Kameng Students Union (AEKSOU), which has been formed for the last three years is filling up the vacant posts of subject teachers in the East Kameng district for the past 3 years, took to social media to appreciate Bagang for his philanthropic gesture.

"We on behalf of the student community of East Kameng district wholeheartedly extend our thanks to Molk Bagang for his contribution. We can proudly say that this is the biggest donation ever for the greater interest of the district," the Union's post in social media read.

Several government schools of the East Kameng district, which is represented by 4 MLAs including a cabinet minister, have been closed for long due to lack of subject teachers in the institutions.

According to a letter written by the Government Higher Secondary School (GHSS), Seppa to the director of education earlier this month, the school alone lacks 4 post graduate and 10 trained graduate teachers, besides a teacher and peon.

Among others, the posts of chemistry, biology and physics teachers (TGT) have remained vacant in the school since 2012, while English teachers (TGT) have not been posted in the school since the year 2005.

Seppa is the headquarters of East Kameng district. The Arunachal Pradesh government has declared 2021 as the 'Year of Education'.

Surya Cement awards prizes to Vaccine Lagao Inaam Pao contest winners

GUWAHATI, SEPT 21: Surya Cement, one of the preferred and leading brands of North East India's building material industry, awarded prizes of vaccine incentive program Vaccine Lagao Inaam Pao contest — Get Vaccinated Get Reward.

Surya Cement launched "Vaccine Lagao Inaam Pao" contest on 1st July, for construction workers. With a dedicated network in Darjeeling (M) and Kamrup (R), Assam, Vaccine Lagao Inaam Pao Contest concluded on 15th September 2021 with the announcement that Chaneswar Das from Bijaynagar, Kamrup Rural won the first prize, Kishore Kumar Das from Sualkuchi, Kampong Rural won the second prize and Sudip Barua from Mirza, Kamrup Rural won the third.

"I would like to congratulate the winners and everyone who has been immunized and participated in the contest — you have helped protect yourself, your loved ones and others," said Dr. M.D. Purushottam Agarwal, Managing Director.

The draw of lots to select the first three winners were done by Mukesh Gupta of M/s Charcharia Steel, Guwahati. The draw was done by Mukesh Gupta of M/s Charcharia Steel, Guwahati.

Jayanta Hazarika was the younger brother of legendary Assamese musician Bhupen Hazarika and the first Assamese composer to fuse western musical forms such as rock and roll, jazz and Western Classical with traditional Assamese melodies and created a new source.

He was a pioneer in introducing several western instruments in his compositions. The musical program, titled '78th Jayanta Hazarika', was graced by the presence of Manisha Hazarika, eminent singer and wife of legendary singer Jayanta Hazarika, Sanjha Suhra Devbarman, the Regional Director of India Tourism North-

Mizo nationalism our driving force: CM Zoramthanga

MIZORAM, SEPT 21: Mizoram chief minister and Mizo National Front (MNF) president Zoramthanga on Monday said Mizo nationalism, the main driving force behind the martyrdom of Mizo heroes, is pivotal to the survival of Mizoram and the Mizos.

The ruling MNF observed martyrs' day to pay tribute to those who laid down their lives for the cause of the state and the Mizos.

Speaking at the grand observance of 40th martyrs' day held at Yanapa Hall here, Zoramthanga said each nation has its own form of nationalism.

However, the Mizo nationalism promoted by the MNF is unique and different from the nationalism for God and the Mizo nation, he said.

Citing that the MNF party has been facing up and down, the MNF president said the party would not have reached its present position had it not believed in God and used Him as its refuge.

"We would not have reached this stage had we promote nationalism and function without the help of God. This is the covenant of not only the MNF but also the Mizo nation," he said, adding that the MNF is one of the oldest parties in the country.

He claimed that the party is awaiting a divine blessing on Covid-19.

After coming underground through peaceful means, the group took up arms and was involved in underground activities between 1966 and 1986.

After coming underground in 1966, the MNF was converted into a political party and is now a recognized regional or state party.

The MNF has won assembly polls in 1986, 1996, 2003 and 2018. Due to the incumbency wave, the party suffered a heavy defeat by winning only 3 out of 40 seats in the 2018 assembly elections.

With its strong total prohibition agenda and the incumbency wave on the ruling Congress, the MNF came back to power in 2018 assembly polls under the leadership of Zoramthanga by sweeping 26 seats and later won one more seat in the assembly poll.

"If we carry on the covenant, we will be protected by God. We should stay true to our covenant and fulfil it," he said.

MNF senior vice president and deputy chief minister Tawmlila also spoke on the occasion.

During the observation, floral tributes were paid to thousands of Mizos who laid down their lives during the insurgent move-

The MNF was founded by former Mizoram chief minister late Laibong Laibong to protest against the inaction of the Centre towards the famine situation in the Mizo areas of the Assam state in the late 1950s.
